Welcome
from the president of IALP

As President of the IALP (International Association of Logopedics and Phoniatrics), it is my pleasure to welcome you to attend and participate in the 30th World Congress of the IALP to be held in August 2016 at City West Hotel, Dublin, Ireland.

IALP is an international organization representing scientists and practitioners working in the field of communication sciences and with individuals who have voice, speech, language, hearing and swallowing difficulties. The association includes 63 affiliated societies hailing from all continents of the world. IALP aspires to advance knowledge in human communication disorders worldwide. It facilitates international cooperation and collaboration about science, education and practice to improve the quality of life of individuals with communication disorders and swallowing difficulties. IALP creates, shares and distributes information as well as provides a platform for international networking.

The theme for the Dublin Congress - Creating the Future Now: Advancing Research and Clinical Practice, reflects the work of this dynamic, culturally and linguistically diverse professional team.

I invite you to join us and to participate in the Dublin Congress in August 2016.

Helen Grech Ph.D,
President, IALP

What is the IALP?
The IALP are the organization of professionals and scientists in communication, voice, speech language pathology, audiology and swallowing.

Vision
IALP has a global vision to facilitate better understanding, knowledge and care of all those with communication and swallowing disorders.

Mission
The Mission of IALP is to improve the quality of life of individuals with disorders of voice, speech, language, communication, swallowing and hearing.

IALP will:
facilitate science, education and clinical practice through international cooperation and collaboration; create, share and distribute information; provide a platform for international networking and influence.

Welcome
from the Local Organising Committee

IASLT
The Irish Association of Speech and Language Therapists (IASLT) are proud to host the 30th World Congress of the IALP. This is the first and most likely only occasion that Ireland will play host to this prestigious international congress.

The local organising committee are comprised of IASLT members, who are also representatives from all five universities in the education of speech and language therapists throughout Ireland. The 30th IALP World Congress will showcase cutting edge research, service initiatives and workshops from presenters in Ireland, the UK and around the world.

We look forward to extending a “Céad Míle Fáilte” (one hundred thousand welcomes) and welcoming you to Ireland, our Emerald Isle in August 2016.
